Mark 6:38-44

WE SERVE A MISSIONARY GOD,

WHO CALLS US TO BE HIS ASSISTANT MISSIONARIES.

FIRST, COMPASSION

Noticing a need might be the preamble
to a partnership in Jesus' ministry of the moment.

WHEN IT MIGHT BE RIGHT TO SAY "NOT MY JOB"

1. If it violates laws, ethics, or conscience
2. It's literally not in your job description, AND it is in someone else's who is able to do it when it needs to be done
3. To establish/maintain healthy boundaries
4. When it includes a helpful redirection
5. If it would derail primary priorities

WHEN IT MIGHT BE WRONG TO SAY "NOT MY JOB"

1. To be passive-aggressive, passive-bossy, or passive-judgmental
2. When it's first prompted by compassion
3. If we're trying to immitate Christ
4. If it's a simple "team player" situation
5. If it's because we're keeping score & comparing to others

Do you believe in the power of an encouraging word?

Maybe you should join the
